Topic: Actions against bullying 2017

Dear Scouts brothers and sisters:

Continuing our plan of action against bullying for 2017, we present you what we will be developing together during the upcoming months.

During our last XXV Interamerican Scout Summit of 2015, many countries signed the Regional Declaration against bullying, you can still make your own national declaration taking as a template the declaration available on line, you can download it by following the next link: <https://www.scout.org/bullyingScoutIAR>

During August we will be posting some publications (8 publications) through our Facebook and instagram accounts promoting the documents and Actions against bullying that we call "Tell us how the story ends" to this we attach to this circular the necessary documents to join the Campaign

We hope to have your support to contribute to the physical, mental and emotional well-being and safety of our children and young people.

Yours in Scouting,

Raul Sanchez Vaca
