GENERAL
EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

An educational objective is a result expected at the end of an educational process and expressed in terms of new abilities to be acquired

4. STAGES OF DEVELOPMENT AND AGE SECTIONS

At this difficult age, what is good for an adolescent of sixteen is not so good for a boy of fifteen and may be bad for one of thirteen or fourteen...

Even though Scout education has the same four ambitions for older and younger boys (character, manual skills, health, altruism), the details of the action vary according to the different stages of development of the child.
