World Scout Youth Involvement Policy

Youth Programme

The Basic Principle

Scouting is a Movement of young people, supported by adults; it is NOT a Movement for young people managed by adults only.

Thus, Scouting offers the potential for a learning community of young people and adults, working together in a partnership of enthusiasm and experience.

SCOUTS
Creating a Better World

is the meaningful participation and is the attitudinal, structural, and sustained involvement of young people in an action in which they use their time, intelligence, talents, skills and abilities for making a positive change in their own and the life of others, which results from strong connections to a particular idea, person, activity, place or outcome.

Why involve young people?

Young people think outside of the box

Youth have the right to be represented

Collaborating, both youth and adults can develop relevant skills

Responsibility

Youth involvement fosters Responsibility

It is part of the Scout Method

The Framework for a Strategy on Youth Involvement, with indicators of success to be achieved by 2020

The framework for the strategy for Youth Involvement sets out the results which will help NSOs to improve the educational opportunities available to young people in Scouting. These results cover four topics:

- Policies and Structures
- Programme Support
- Communications
- Attitudes
