

RESOLUTIONS OF COURTESY

Resolution of Courtesy – Resilience of Scouting through COVID-19

The 42nd World Scout Conference records its sincere appreciation for the efforts of its Member Organizations in:

- continuing to serve their local communities during the unprecedented challenge of the global COVID-19 pandemic;
- responding creatively and at pace, to ensure their Youth Programmes and training for Adults in Scouting adapted to new realities;
- taking the lead in offering young people crucial non-formal educational experiences in safe environments;
- helping young people connect with each other through innovative activities, supporting them through times of physical isolation and great uncertainty.

Resolution of Courtesy

The 42nd World Scout Conference expresses its gratitude to,

1. The Planning Teams of the 14th World Scout Youth Forum and the 42nd World Scout Conference for their leadership and tireless effort in organising and delivering these successful virtual events, consisting of hundreds of volunteers from the World Organization of the Scout Movement and staff of the World Scout Bureau.
2. The outgoing World Scout Committee, including Youth Advisors, for their leadership in implementing Conference decisions, and other measures taken during the course of the extended triennium, including ensuring good governance in WOSM.
3. The World Scout Bureau for its work in supporting the World Scout Committee and Regional Scout Committees, and in delivering the best possible services to Member Organizations.
4. The Member Organizations participating in the first ever virtual World Scout Conference, for their flexibility and resilience in adapting to the new realities, and their active participation.
5. World Scouting's partners who contributed to the programme of the virtual events:
 - a. World Scout Foundation
 - b. Kandersteg International Scout Centre
 - c. Organizations with Consultative Status with the World Scout Committee
