Draft Resolutions

Proposed by the World Scout Committee

The World Scout Committee proposes to the 2017 World Scout Conference to adopt the Draft Resolutions contained in this Conference Document 4A.

These proposed Draft Resolutions are proposed by the World Scout Committee in accordance with Rule 6.1.a of the approved Rules of Procedure for the 2017 World Scout Conference. A brief explanation or justification, the text of the Draft Resolution, and Background Information provided by the World Scout Bureau are included for each proposed Draft Resolution.

This document should be studied and discussed by your Member Organization and brought to the Conference by your delegation. Amendments to Draft Resolutions can be submitted, in accordance with Rule 6.3, until 16 August 2017 14h00 local time at the Conference. Each amendment needs to be proposed and seconded by different Member Organizations.

For historical reference to the 1920-2014 Conference Resolutions of the World Organization of the Scout Movement please visit: www.scout.org/resolutions. All adopted resolutions from this period can be downloaded from the indicated website.

For any further questions or clarifications, you can contact David Berg, Global Director, Organisational Development at the World Scout Bureau (dberg@scout.org).

Languages

The official languages of the World Organization are English and French. The World Scout Bureau will make all Conference Documents available in both languages. When possible, it endeavours to make them available also in Arabic, Russian and Spanish - the three additional working languages of WOSM. In the event of a conflict arising out of the interpretation of this Conference Document or any other official document of the World Organization, the English text shall prevail.

2017-A Registration of Member Organizations

Already approved by the World Scout Conference through postal ballots

Conference Document 5 - WOSM Membership

Brief explanation or justification:

The Resolution below summarises decisions taken by the World Scout Conference through postal ballots since its 2014 meeting in Slovenia.

It concerns applications for membership which were unopposed or opposed by less than five percent of Member Organizations, in accordance with Article VI.2 of the WOSM Constitution.

Note that the WOSM membership applications of The Scout Association of São Tomé and Príncipe and União Nacional dos Escuteiros de Timor Leste were still pending at the time of release of this Conference Document. These and any others that might still be approved prior to the opening of the Conference, in accordance with WOSM Constitutional provisions, will be added to the below Resolution.

The Conference,

records with pleasure the admission of the following members of the World Organization of the Scout Movement:

- Effective 27 February 2016
 - Scouting Aruba
 - Scouting Antiano (Curaçao)
 - Palestinian Scout Association
- Effective 11 August 2016
 - Myanmar Scout
- Effective 14 December 2016
 - The Seychelles Scouts Association

Already approved by the World Scout Conference through postal ballots

2017-B Membership Application – The Scout Association of Macau

Conference Document 5 - WOSM Membership

Brief explanation or justification for the Draft Resolution:

The membership application of The Scout Association of Macau was deferred to the 2017 World Scout Conference, pursuant to Article VI.2 of the WOSM Constitution.

The Conference,

- considering the application for WOSM membership on 13 December 2014 of The Scout Association of Macau,
- being aware of its Associate Membership of WOSM's Asia-Pacific Region since 1983,
- noting the recommendation of the World Scout Committee for membership,
- noting the opposition of nine Member Organizations (more than five percent of WOSM's Membership) during the postal ballot initiated by the World Scout Committee in accordance with Article VI.1 of the WOSM Constitution, resulting in the referral of the application to this meeting of the World Scout Conference,
- recalling that the Purpose of WOSM is to promote unity and facilitate expansion of the Scout Movement,
- approves the application for WOSM membership of The Scout Association of Macau;
- declares as of 16 August 2017 The Scout Association of Macau a Member Organization of WOSM, as the National Scout Organization representing Macao.

Proposed by: The World Scout Committee

This Draft Resolution requires a two-thirds majority of the votes cast to be accepted (Article VI.2 and XI.2 of the WOSM Constitution).

2017-C Strategy for Scouting – Triennial Plan 2017-2020

Conference Document 6A – Strategy for Scouting Draft Objectives for World Triennial Plan 2017-2020

Brief explanation or justification for the Draft Resolution:

- To approve the proposed objectives of the Triennial Plan 2017-2020 as the overall strategic guidelines for the next Triennium.
- To request the next World Scout Committee to finalise and publish the Triennial Plan, taking a resource and reality assessment into account, as well as an alignment with Conference Resolutions, and complete this no later than 31 December 2017.
- To request the World Scout Bureau to elaborate on the established monitoring processes (in particular the meta-indicators) for the overall Strategy for Scouting (Vision 2023) and ensure frequent progress reporting.

The Conference,

- recalling Conference Resolution 2014-06, which approved "Vision 2023" as the new Strategy for Scouting,
- recalling Conference Resolution 2014-07, which approved the overall strategic guidelines for the World Triennial Plan 2014-2017 as the first iteration of three to achieve the targets set out,
- commending the World Scout Committee's Strategy Monitoring Group in the training and resources produced to assist Regions and Member Organizations to align themselves with the Strategy for Scouting,
- expressing its appreciation on the diligent reporting of the World Scout Committee including the use of Key Performance Indicators,
- considering the outcomes of the discussions between Member Organizations on the World Triennial Plan 2017-2020 during the related session at this Conference,
- approves the proposed objectives of the World Triennial Plan 2017-2020 (as amended), included in Chapter 3 of Conference Document 6, as the overall strategic guidelines for the work to be carried out during the next Triennium;
- requests the World Scout Committee,
 - to make a final reality assessment of the proposed objectives of the World Triennial Plan 2017-2020 in terms of available resources;
 - to align the proposed objectives of the World Triennial Plan 2017-2020 (as amended) with the Resolutions taken by the Conference;
 - to approve the final version of the World Triennial Plan 2017-2020, an operational framework to implement it and a subsequent translation into yearly operational plans;
 - to share the final version of the World Triennial Plan 2017-2020 with all Member Organizations no later than 31 December 2017;
 - to share regular progress reports with Member Organizations;
 - to develop the World Triennial Plan 2020-2023 using a similar approach, incorporating lessons learned during this process;
- requests the World Scout Bureau,
 - to further elaborate the concept of "meta-indicators" to assess overall progress of the Scout Movement in achieving the targets set out in Vision 2023;
 - to make these measurements regularly available to the World Scout Committee, enabling it to guide the implementation of the Strategy for Scouting across its Regions and Member Organizations.

2017-D The Scout Method Review

Conference Document 8 – The Scout Method

Brief explanation or justification for the Draft Resolution:

- The 2014 World Scout Conference in Slovenia adopted the World Scout Youth Programme Policy.
- Informed by Conference Resolution 2014-08, the Conference urged the WSC to reconsider the way in which the Scout Method's educational aims are expressed.
- The Triennial Plan 2014-2017 included the following objective under the Educational Methods Strategic Priority and within the Youth Programme section:
Revisit the Scout Method to accurately reflect 21st century developments and the World Scout Youth Programme Policy

The Conference,

- recalling Conference Resolution 2014-08: World Scout Youth Programme Policy,
- recognising the work carried out by the Scout Method Unit of the Innovating Scouting Work stream, responding to the Triennial Plan 2014-2017 objective under the Educational Methods Strategic Priority, Youth Programme section, to:
 - o Revisit the Scout Method to accurately reflect 21st century developments and the World Youth Programme Policy,
- emphasizing the fundamental aspect of the Scout Method as the basis for developing and delivering Scouting's Youth Programme and its importance for the Movement at all levels,
- noting the different interpretations of the Scout Method across various WOSM official publications, and the need to have consistency of the presentation of the Scout Method across the Organization,
- acknowledging the need for a new interpretation of the Scout Method that is in harmony with new trends and 21st century competencies,
- adopts the text of the Scout Method set out in Conference Document 8 as WOSM's interpretation of the Scout Method, reflected in the constitutional amendments related to the Scout Method in Chapter I Article III;
- strongly urges Member Organizations to take the necessary steps to reflect this new interpretation of the Scout Method in their own educational programmes, procedures and materials;
- requests the World Scout Bureau to take all necessary steps to provide support to Member Organizations in this area, and to take any necessary action to promote widely the new interpretation;
- urges the World Scout Bureau to put in place a process to update all relevant institutional and educational materials with the new interpretation;
- requests the World Scout Committee to put in place a process to review the interpretation of the Scout Method every three triennia;
- strongly requests Regions to update the interpretation of the Scout Method in their relevant materials and events.

2017-E World Safe from Harm Policy

Conference Document 9 – World Safe from Harm Policy

Brief explanation or justification for the Draft Resolution:

The World Safe from Harm Policy has been drafted (Conference Document 9) by the World Scout Committee and World Scout Bureau as foreseen in the Triennial Plan 2014-2017.

The policy focuses on promoting the wellbeing, healthy development and safety of children and young people by providing them with a safe environment throughout their time in the Scout Movement.

The Conference,

- reaffirming Conference Resolutions 1990-16: Convention on the Rights of the Child and 2002-07: Keeping Scouts Safe from Harm,
- considering the necessity to ensure that Scouting continues as a safe learning environment for children, young people, and adults, and the critical role that adults play in achieving this,
- considering the Member Organizations' assessment on Safe from Harm developed by the World Scout Committee with the support of the World Scout Bureau,

- adopts the World Safe from Harm Policy, Conference Document 9, for ensuring the continuing wellbeing, healthy development and safety of children and young people during their time in Scouting;
- resolves that any existing systems and procedures on Safe from Harm at the world level are now modified by the adoption of the provisions of the World Safe from Harm Policy;
- invites Member Organizations to implement the provisions of the new World Safe from Harm Policy;
- requests the World Scout Committee to allocate resources to support the implementation of the new World Safe from Harm Policy through the establishment of regional networks;
- requests the World Scout Bureau to develop and distribute guidelines which support the implementation of the new World Safe from Harm Policy.

2017-G Inclusive Decision-Making - Developing the World Scout Conference and the World Scout Youth Forum

Conference Document 10 – Concept Review of the World Scout Conference and the World Scout Youth Forum

Brief explanation or justification for the Draft Resolution:

The Triennial Plan 2014-2017 tasked the WSC to "Review the concepts of the World Scout Conference and World Scout Youth Forum to ensure both events meet the needs of the Movement".

The proposal refers to Conference Resolutions 1999-11, 2005-11 and 2008-15. These note the transitional and "interim" nature of the WSYF.

The proposal also refers to Conference Resolution 2011-08 and 2014-09 which call on the WSC to implement plans to improve Youth Involvement in decision making.

The Conference,

- reaffirming its commitment to inclusive decision-making at all levels of WOSM,
 - reaffirming its commitment to the World Scout Youth Involvement Policy agreed in Conference Resolution 2014-09,
 - noting Conference Resolutions 1999-11, 2005-11 and 2008-15 which confirmed the transitional and interim nature of the World Scout Youth Forum in the decision-making processes of WOSM,
 - noting Conference Resolutions 1990-24, 1993-24 and 2005-12 which called for more inclusive methods to be used at World Scout Conferences,
 - welcomes the "concept review", Conference Document 10, of the World Scout Conference and World Scout Youth Forum undertaken in the last triennium,
 - welcomes the progress that has been made to ensure inclusivity in decision making processes at this Conference,
- requests the World Scout Committee to continue to innovate and progress further changes to working methods to ensure increasing inclusivity and effectiveness of decision-making at the World Scout Conferences and in other WOSM bodies;
 - urges the World Scout Committee to investigate and introduce further innovations in the structure of the World Scout Conference programme which support the values of transparency, inclusivity, and sharing of good practices;
 - calls upon the World Scout Committee to introduce further developments for the World Scout Conference in 2020 to ensure that young people are fully engaged in the decision-making process with the aim of merging the World Scout Conference and World Scout Youth Forum into a new event in 2023;
 - calls upon the organisers of future World Scout Conferences to focus any solidarity programme on the attendance of young people under the age of 30 years.
